THE GOLDMAN SACHS 10,000 WOMEN CHINA STUDENT CHALLENGE

Enter the Goldman Sachs 10,000 Women China Student Challenge to demonstrate how you can think like an entrepreneur and impact the success of a real business.

THE CHALLENGE

Are you an innovative, analytical and strategic thinker? Two business challenges have been set by companies that have participated in the Goldman Sachs 10,000 Women program. Students registered at universities in China, and due to graduate in 2017, are invited to submit innovative solutions to one of two business challenges. Students from all degree disciplines and backgrounds are encouraged to enter, and the top shortlisted applicants will be invited to our Beijing office to present their ideas.

THE PRIZES

- The overall competition winners will receive an Apple Macbook Air™ Laptop
- The overall category winners will be guaranteed interviews for the 2016 Goldman Sachs Asia Summer Internship Program
- All finalists will receive a certificate of achievement
