The Investment Banking Deal Competition on campus

The Deal is a unique and exciting opportunity for you to gain valuable experience in investment banking. It is a hypothetical acquisition based on the actual challenges that our investment banking teams encounter. You'll work in a team of 3-5 members and assume the role of the financial advisor for the Board of Directors of a public, private or consumer product company. Only one team will win.

It's your chance to see what it's like to work for and with a team that you can work alongside as a team. It's your chance to work with a team of professionals who will be your mentors and advisors. It's your chance to see what it's like to work in a team that will be your mentors and advisors.

Registration closes: June 2, 2013
